To the Parents of Miss Amanda Nino
1225 Broadway, Apt. 705
Chula Vista, California 91911

Dear Parent,

I am thrilled to inform you that, based on her academic achievements and leadership potential, your daughter, Amanda, has been nominated to attend the Junior National Young Leaders Conference (JrNYLC) to be held this summer 2009 in Washington, D.C.

Amanda was nominated by her teacher, Mrs. Kalen Miller, who recognized her as one of a select group of students with the scholastic merit, maturity and strength of character to represent Harborside Elementary School at this unique leadership program for exceptional 5th and 6th graders. On behalf of the members of the United States Congress who serve on our Honorary Congressional Board of Advisors, I congratulate you on Amanda's achievements. You must be very proud.

In addition to meeting the significant academic requirements that are our first consideration in choosing scholars, we have been told that Amanda has the strength of character and leadership ability that will allow her to get the most out of this unparalleled opportunity. We expect to enroll an outstanding group of young achievers from a variety of backgrounds across the country. We look forward to having your daughter join these high-achieving students as one of our nation's future leaders.

Upon your daughter's official acceptance into JrNYLC, she may request a press release which you can distribute to your local news media. After her successful completion of the Conference, your daughter will receive the official Junior National Young Leaders Conference Certificate of Merit.
